

GLITTER AND GOLD

Your W-day jewellery is so much more than just your ring. If you don't know where to look, take inspiration from Astrid & Miyu – a young brand that embraces contemporary class and edge. Its pieces are unusual yet versatile, edgy yet classic and glamorous while still being subtle. It's ideal for brides, as it believes accessories should not overshadow the natural beauty of the woman wearing them – possibly why bride-to-be Pippa Middleton has been spotted in some of its pieces. County Wedding Magazines has exclusively teamed up with Astrid & Miyu to offer readers the chance to win a £200 voucher. Enter via our website, terms and conditions apply.

All are created using the four elements: earth for the porcelain, water to make the slip, air for drying the cast and fire from the kiln. Each one can have a variety of finishes including copper, gold and platinum, and it can be re-used as a pretty keepsake once the wax has burnt. For further information, visit abalonstar.com
